Grievances should be filed in accordance with the written procedures established by TRRCWD. Signed and dated grievance forms will be included in all participant case files. If you believe you have been harmed by the violation of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act or regulations of the program, you have the right to file a grievance.

This will include a meeting of all parties with the hope of reaching a mutually satisfactory resolution. If the complaint has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant within thirty (30) days, the TRRCWD WIOA Equal Opportunity Officer will arrange appointment of a hearing officer to conduct a hearing for settlement of the complaint to be held within sixty (60) days of grievance filing.

Hearing Process

A hearing on any complaint filed shall be conducted as soon as reasonably possible, but within sixty (60) days of the complaint's filing. Within ten (10) business days of the receipt of the request for a hearing, TRRCWD shall: (1) respond in writing acknowledging the request to the grievant; and (2) notify the grievant and respondent of a hearing date. The hearing shall be conducted in compliance with federal regulations. The hearing shall have, at a minimum, the following components: (1) an impartial hearing officer selected by TRRCWD; (2) an opportunity for both the grievant and respondent to present an opening statement, witnesses, and evidence; (3) an opportunity for each party to cross-examine the other party's witnesses; and (4) a record of the hearing which TRRCWD shall create and maintain.

The hearing officer, considering the evidence presented by the grievant and respondent, shall issue a written decision, which shall serve as TRRCWD's official resolution of the complaint. The decision shall include the following information: (1) the date, time, and place of hearing; (2) a recitation of the issues alleged in the complaint; (3) a summary of any evidence and witnesses presented by the grievant and respondent; (4) an analysis of the issues as related to the facts; and (5) a decision addressing each issue alleged in the complaint.

No applicant, participant, employee, service provider or training provider will be intimidated, threatened, coerced or discriminated against because he/she have made a complaint, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing.

If the complainant(s) does not receive a written decision from the Hearing Officer within sixty (60) days of grievance/complaint filing, or receives a decision unsatisfactory to the complainant(s), the complainant(s) then has/have a right to request a review by the State using the WIOA Complaint Information Form found at:
